disruptive to the use and enjoyment of University Housing by other students, the University may refuse to offer you a University Housing Contract in the future.

- E. You agree that if the University finds you to be in violation of this Contract or of any of the University Regulations, or if you are disruptive to the use and enjoyment of University Housing by other students: (1) you may be subject to disciplinary action (including but not limited to dismissal from the University); (2) you may be required to change University Housing residence halls; and/or (3) your eligibility to use University Housing may be revoked, this Contract canceled, and you may be required to vacate from University Housing. If the University requires you to vacate from University Housing, this Contract will be automatically canceled, and you will pay all charges accrued under this Contract until you check out pursuant to information provided times the Daily Room Rate for each day you remain in the room you have been instructed to semester, in which unused board plan will be forfeited. Unused board plan at the end of July, or on a communicated deadline, will be forfeited and does not roll over into the new academic year.

- C. Meal service will begin no later than the first day of class in the Fall Semester and the Spring Semester. No meal service will be provided during any University holiday, which includes Winter Break and other student holidays the University may designate.
- D. Students who cancel their housing are subject to the terms of the cancellation process. Students with an approved cancellation are eligible for a meal plan adjustment based on the Residence Life Handbook.

XV. Abandonment of Room, Abandonment of Personal Property, and University's Disposal of Personal Property

- A. Abandonment of your room/housing unit means: (1) in the University's reasonable judgment you appear to have moved out because of substantial removal of clothing, furniture, or personal belongings from the University Housing room and housing unit; and (2) either the date by which the Contract obligates you to leave such room has passed or no one has been in the room for five (5) consecutive days while charges are due and unpaid.
- B. If there has been abandonment of personal property in connection with the abandonment of your room, the University may remove, store, and/or dispose of all property remaining in the room or housing unit. You are responsible for costs associated with the removal and/or storage of abandoned property.
